I am Randy Miller, a licensed Professional Land Surveyor in Utah and also a Certified Federal Surveyor. I am running for Davis County Surveyor as an unaffiliated candidate because I feel the race for County Surveyor should be a non-partisan race. I believe that partisanship in our politics is counterproductive and stifling. I believe that the spirit of parties segregates us into hostile factions and erodes the camaraderie that should exist between concerned citizens with differing opinions. The voice and union of "We the People" will continue to strengthen as the affinity for party identification continues to decline.

I have declared my independence from the two parties as a matter of conscience and principle. Public service is as simple as understanding the wishes of the people and acting upon their needs and desires.

For more information about my candidacy and the growing independent movement of unaffiliated voters, please visit <http://www.uliv.org/land> or contact me by email: public@uliv.org.
